Pan American Congress

Some of Its Work Sent to Congress.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION.

The President Transmits to the House a Letter from the Secretary of State Stating the Actions of the Conference. Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The president sent to the house yesterday afternoon a letter from the secretary of state, accompanied by reports adopted by the Pan-American congress, relating to the subject of international arbitration.

Secretary Blaine in his letter says the act of congress approved May 24, 1888, authorized the president to invite the several other governments of America to join the United States in a conference for the purpose of discussing and recommending for adoption fome plan of arbitration for the settlement of disagreements and disputes that may hereafter arise between them. In pursuance of this invitation the conference, he says, adopted three reports.

First—Recommending a definite plan of arbitration for the settlement of differences between the American nations.

Second—Recommending the adoption of a similar plan by the nations of Europe.

Third—Declaring that the right of conquest could not be recognized by the American nation.

In his letter of transmittal the president says that the ratification of the treaties contemplated by these reports will constitute one of the happiest and most useful incidents in the history of the western hemisphere.

Senate and House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—In the senate yesterday a resolution offered by Mr. Caldring, declaring the shooting of Gen. Barrundia an insult to the American flag, was referred to a committee. The tariff bill was taken up, and the sugar schedule discussed. Extended speeches on the general subject of protection were made by Messrs. Evarts, Voorhees and Gray. The evening session was devoted to speeches on the bill.

The house passed the bill to regulate granting of leases at Hot Springs, Ark., and the bill for a bridge across the Savannah by the Georgia and Atlantic railroad. The Clayton-Breckinridge case was taken up and discussed with some acrimony but without action, adjournment being delayed until a late hour.

The President's Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Acting Secretary Wharton has sent the following telegram to the widow of Gen. Barrundia, in reply to her message to the president Monday evening: The president desires me to say he has received your telegram announcing the death of your husband, Gen. Barrundia. While deeply sympathizing with you in your affliction, he awaits official details of the occurrence necessary to determine his action in regard thereto. This matter, you may be assured, will receive most careful attention.

Silver Purchases.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The director of the mint yesterday purchased 100,000 ounces of silver at $1.19 1-4, and 200,000 ounces at $1.19 4-10. The total amount offered yesterday aggregated 2,008,500 ounces. Silver yesterday in London sold at 54 5-8 pence per ounce, the highest price recorded in that market since March, 1878.

More Bond Purchases.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The treasury department yesterday purchased $63,650, four-and-a-half per cent. bonds under the terms of the circular of Aug. 30.

A Hot Contest Ended.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 4.—The hottest and most protracted contest for representative in the history of Rutland resulted, after four ballots, lasting till 8:20 a. m., in the election of Thomas W. Maloney, Democrat, by 34 majority over three other candidates. The contest was noteworthy because Rutland is recognized as the home of the high license movement, and the defeat of P. W. Clement, Republican, and the father of the movement, was accomplished by a small majority, about 200 prohibitionists voting for the Democratic candidate.

Failed for Over Half a Million.

ANTIGO, Wis., Sept. 4.—The lumber and logging firm of Hixie & Mellor failed this morning with liabilities of $518,000. The assets, comprising logging railroad lumber, lands and mills, are placed at $600,000. The firm employed 400 men but it is not likely that business will be resumed. The failure is attributed to dull trade, and was precipitated by the refusal of the National bank of Oshkosh to carry the firm's paper any longer.

A Big Haul, But Not All.

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—The dwelling of Charles Vanbrunt, the grandson of Commander Vanbrunt, on Brush Hill, Milton, was entered by burglars Monday night. They carried off a quantity of clothing and a number of watches and diamonds. The stolen property is valued at $4,000. In a drawer of a bureau was a casket containing the family jewels and heirlooms. These the burglars overlooked. They are valued at $50,000.

Wedding of the Blind.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Sept. 4.—Clarence Stewart, of this city, and Miss Anna Pike, of Grand Junction, Iowa, both blind, were married Tuesday. They are well educated and of excellent families. Clarence is a well known genius of this place, having the faculty of finding any place in the city without a guide.

EDITORS GET THE RAZOO.

The President of Venezuela Seems to Have Too Much Power.

CITY OF CARACAS, Sept. 4.—The president of Venezuela has just issued a decree punishing several editors who have been adjudged as having libeled him and other public functionaries. After a long preamble setting forth the laws of the country the decree continues:

"Especial note must be taken of the newspapers called La Sombra, El Indipendiente and El Obrera, whose editors and proprietors have been guilty of calumny against the president of the republic and other high functionaries in their character as magistrates, as well as having calumniated the integrity of the president's household.

"Therefore, because of these acts, order for arrest is herewith issued for the editors Felix Matos Bernier, Luis Cabalier and Francisco Gonzalez Marin, Spanish subjects, comprising the editorial staff of La Sombra; Juan Caronel, editor of El Obrera, Colombian citizen; Manual Avila Blanco, Venezuela, editor of The El Indipendiente, and Manuel Marquez and Eduardo Diez, of the editorial staff of La Guillotina."

The president of the republic, with the affirmative votes of the Federal council, decrees that the Spanish subjects, Felix Matos Bernier, Luis Cabalier and Francisco Gonzales Marin, and the Colombian citizen, Juan Caronel, shall be placed on board the first steamer leaving this country for foreign parts from the port of La Guayra. The governor of the Federal districts will place the Venezuelan citizens, Manuel Avila Blanco, Manuel Marquez and Eduardo Diez, under arrest, so that they may be judged by the courts and sentenced for the crimes they have committed, all to be done in conformity with the law.

BASE BALL CONFERENCE.

No Interchange of Games Between the Players' and Association.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—An important secret base ball conference was held yesterday between the Players' League and American Association. The proposition for an interchange of games between the organizations after the close of the championship season was, it is said, defeated by the vote of the Baltimore club. The Players' League was represented at the conference by President Johnson, Secretary Brunell and John M. Ward. President Phelps, Chris. Von der Ahe and Treasurer Whittaker represented the Association, the other clubs being represented by proxy.

The conference was called at the suggestion of the Players' League, and certain propositions were made. The Players' are said to be desirous of forming an offensive and defensive alliance with the Association, but that is a proposition the Association delegates refused to entertain. It was then suggested that there be an interchange of games after the regular season, and that met with some favor, but when it came to a vote it was defeated by the ballot of the Baltimore club, which is said to be controlled by Charles Byrne, of Brooklyn.

Cornice Factory Burned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Thomas Hogan's cornice factory at 227 and 229 East Fifty-sixth street, was gutted yesterday by a fire which destroyed the whole inside of the structure. The fire is said to have been caused by an explosion which occurred in the basement where four or five boys were at work at the time. Two of the boys, John Logan and John O'Brien were badly burned, while one, Daniel Killen, aged 15, was burned to death. Mr. Hogan places his loss at $15,000, partly insured. The cause of the fire and explosion is a mystery.

Ten Buildings Burned.

LEVIS, Que., Sept. 4.—Fire started at 1 o'clock this morning in Pupilessi's tannery on St. Eteinne street, and, fanned by a fresh breeze, spread rapidly. The fire brigade were powerless to check the flames, and a detachment of "B" battery were brought over from the fort. They rendered effective service, and the flames were under control at 3:30 o'clock. Ten buildings were burned. The total loss is estimated at $30,000; insurance $12,000.

Death of a Noted Newspaper Man.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 4.—William M. Butts, of the firm of Butts & Robinson, printers and publishers of The Protector, the official organ of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, died yesterday from the effects of a dose of morphia, which he admitted having taken with suicidal intent. Mr. Butts was past grand master of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. Mr. Robinson says he knows no no reason for the suicide.

Reward for a Murderer.

BUCYRUS, O., Sept. 4.—The Crawford county commissioners have authorized a reward of $1,000 for evidence that will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who murdered John J. Kirkland, at Crestline, on the night of Aug. 15. At present there is no clew to the perpetrators of the deed.

Speaker Reed in Boston.

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—Speaker Reed, who is on his way to Maine to participate in the political campaign in that state, addressed a large audience last night at Faneuil hall. It was a very enthusiastic gathering, and Mr. Reed was given a rousing welcome.

Arkansas Election Returns.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 4.—Returns from 556 out of 1,030 townships in the state give Eagle, Democrat, for governor, a gain of 9,920 over his majority in the same places two years ago. If the same ratio continues Eagle's majority will reach 30,000.

A Negro Murderer Lynched.

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Sept. 4.—Thomas Smith, a negro, who during an altercation yesterday with Mr. Albright, fractured the latter's skull with a stone, was taken from jail this morning by a masked mob and lynched.

More Witnesses Testify

Arbitrators Investigating the Central Strike.

WHY THEY WERE DISCHARGED.

The Board, After Examining All the Witnesses in New York City, Adjourns to Meet in Albany, Where a Large Number of Witnesses Reside, Nearly All Being Discharged Knights of Labor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The state board of mediation and arbitration yesterday resumed its efforts to ascertain the causes of the strike on the New York Central and Hudson River railroad. Hamilton Harris, counsel for the railroad, called as the first witness of the day General Manager Toucey.

Chairman Purcell asked him to give the board such information as he possessed in reference to the discharge of Master Workman E. J. Lee. Mr. Toucey said he had an interview with Mr. Lee some time ago, in the course of which Mr. Lee alluded to watering of the company's stock; intimated that some one was making a good deal of money, and that he and the other men ought to have some of it.

In reply to a question by Gen. Pryor, the witness said he did not discharge Mr. Lee. Before the talk about the stock watering, Mr. Lee made certain demands on behalf of the men and they were refused.

Superintendent Voorhees testified that he had nothing to do with the discharge of any of the seventy-eight men. He was out of town for three weeks before the strike.

Master Mechanic Buchanan testified that in discharging Lee he did so by orders of Vice President Webb and had no personal knowledge of the causes for his discharge. Of the seventy-eight men discharged he knew the causes for discharge in the cases of two only—Malloy and Conway. Malloy was discharged for obtaining a pass under false pretenses. Conway was discharged for neglect of duty. He absented himself without leave and was several times late in the morning and at noon.

Trainmaster Stevens, on being called by counsel for the railroad, testified that he had never told any employe of the company that he must either leave the Knights of Labor or leave the road.

Then Gen. Pryor called John Seery, who was employed under Stevens. Seery testified that he went into Mr. Stevens' office to get supplies and Mr. Stevens asked him if it was true that he had joined the Knights of Labor. Seery told him it was. Then Stevens told him he should not have joined without acquainting him, as he had helped him to better his position. Mr. Stevens further said that he had better get out of the Knights or it might cost him his bread and butter. Seery understood him to mean that if he did not leave the Knights he would be discharged.

This conversation occurred on Aug. 1. At the request of Mr. Stevens he was recalled. He said part of Seery's testimony was true and part was not. He did ask Seery if he belonged to the Knights of Labor and he told him he ought not to join them without acquainting him. This was on account of his personal relations to Seery, he having got him a better position and more pay than he had been receiving. He did not tell his bread and butter depended on his leaving the knights, but when the secretary asked him what he ought to do, he told him he must act on his judgement. If Seery was his brother, however, he would advise him to leave them, as in case of a strike he would find himself compelled to go out with them.

Gen. Pryor asked the witness if he had a conversation with Conductor William Gibson in reference to his leaving the Knights of Labor. Mr. Stevens said Gibson came to him with his resignation from the Knights of Labor and asked him to mail it for him.

The witness promised to do so, and told Gibson he was glad to see him taking that step. He never advised anyone to leave the Knights of Labor.

At the conclusion of Mr. Stevens' testimony, Gen. Pryor announced that he had no more witnesses to call here, but had a number in Albany. The board decided to adjourn until Friday at 10 a. m., when it will meet in Albany. Secretary-Treasurer Hayes, of the executive board Knights of Labor, handed up to Chairman Purcell a long list of witnesses who are to be subpœnaed to testify in Albany. They are mainly discharged employes of the Central road.

ELECTION IN VERMONT.

Large Democratic Gains in the House. Returns Not Complete.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 4.—Probably one Democratic senator is elected from this county. There will be large Democratic gains in the house. Thirty-seven Democratic assemblymen are so far known to have been elected. There were only eighteen Democrats in the last assembly. Two Farmers' League candidates and an unusually large number of high license Republican assemblymen are elected.

One hundred and sixty-six towns give Page, Republican, 25,724; Brigham, Democrat, 15,024; all others, 925. Majority for Page, 9,775. The same towns in 1888 gave Dillingham, Republican, 21,203 majority, showing a decrease in the Republican vote of 11,428 and a Democratic gain of 374, while the Prohibition vote is less by 150. Woodbury has received 61 votes in five towns not included in the above.

Congressman Morrow Declines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Congressman Morrow's declination of a renomination to congress from the Fourth district has been accepted by the executive committee of the Republican state central committee.

SET AGAINST POLYGAMY.

Prophet Joseph Smith Describes the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ.

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—Joseph Smith, president and prophet of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and son of the famous Mormon leader of the same name, is in town this week, on his return from a reunion of disciples of the church at Jonesport, Me. Mr. Smith is a patriarchal-looking gentleman, with flowing gray beard and an air of typical western clergy about him, and when called upon conversed in an interesting way about his church, its present condition and prospects.

"The progress of the church in the west has been very satisfactory, and we number about 30,000 members with 400 congregations. There is more or less prejudice to overcome in pursuing our work to be sure, but we get along very nicely and quietly, and our mode of worship and general system does not differ materially from that of the Methodists.

"The reorganized church was established April 6, 1830, by my father, who died in 1844, and several others. Unlike the church in Utah, made famous by Brigham Young's connection with it, our church does not believe in polygamy, but, on the contrary, strenuously opposes and condemns it. We separated from the other body in 1844, and are now principally located in Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska, but are scattered all over the country.

"Our preaching is extempore, and we are bound together in pretty much the same manner as the Congregational church is. Most of our converts are from the great body of American people themselves, unlike those of the other Mormon church, who are mainly recruited from abroad. We had sixty baptisms last month."

"What has been the effect of recent legislation upon the Mormons of Utah?"

"Well, I was there last year, and so far as I can learn it has had the effect of making them more cautious; nevertheless, there have been a number of convictions of polygamy. They are very strongly banded together, and keep their own secrets pretty well. Just now a Baptist minister named Lamb is waging an active crusade against them, and he says it is almost impossible to make converts from among their ranks."

A NARROW ESCAPE.

The Royal Mail Steamship Vancouver Runs Into an Iceberg.

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—The royal mail steamship Vancouver, Capt. Lyndall, of the Dominion line, which has just arrived in port here, had a terrible experience while on the way here from Liverpool, which place she left at midnight of Thursday, Aug. 21. After having passed through a furious gale, which lasted from Friday evening until late on Tuesday night, the Vancouver on the following Friday morning found herself running through a fog at dead slow speed. Suddenly what was supposed to be a dense fog bank loomed up ahead, but a moment later it was discovered to be an iceberg.

On the instant the engines were reversed and the water-tight compartments were closed. The speed had not been materially diminished when, within two minutes after the reversal of the engines, the steamer struck against the iceberg with considerable force. The panic which ensued among the 600 passengers on board subsided when it was found that the vessel was not seriously injured. The officers behaved with the utmost courage and coolness. Capt. Lyndall says the iceberg was one of the largest he had ever seen. Estimates of its length vary from a mile to a mile and a half.

SINGLE TAX CONFERENCE.

The Meeting in New York Adjourns. Henry George Banqueted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The single tax conference adjourned yesterday after passing resolutions of thanks to several clubs which had contributed to the success of the conference, and to the press for the uniformily accurate reports of the convention. President Post, in speaking of the visit of Dr. McGlynn to the convention, characterized it as a movement to stampede the convention in favor of protection theories.

Henry George was entertained at a banquet and reception at Coney Island last night by the Brooklyn single tax club. Many prominent single tax men made addresses, and delegates were present from single tax clubs of every state in the Union. About 500 guests sat down to dinner.

Among those present were Judge Maguire, of San Francisco; A. H. Stephenson, of Philadelphia; Frank S. Lyford, of Maine; C. R. Cooper and R. G. Brown, of Memphis; H. F. Ring, George White, Rev. S. W. Thackeray and Dr. W. N. Hill, of Maryland; Boulton Smith and James Merrywater, of St. Louis.

THAT GALICIA MINE HORROR.

Further Particulars of How Eighty Men Were Suffocated.

VIENNA, Sept. 4.—Details regarding the mine explosion near Borgstan, in Galicia, reveal the outrageous action of mine owners that has resulted in the loss of eighty lives.

On Friday last, through the explosion of a boiler, the Wa[illegible]ka mine buildings were set on fire. In order to control the fire the shafts were closed, the authorities being apparently ignorant or careless of the fact that they were thus imprisoning eighty of their employes. Yesterday when the shafts were opened only one body was found, the others not having yet been discovered. The eighty are supposed to have been killed by poisonous gases.

Earthquake Felt in California.

GILROY, Cal., Sept. 4.—A sharp shock of earthquake was felt here at 3:20 p. m. yesterday. Its duration was about two seconds.

DEADLOCK STILL UNBROKEN.

The Democratic Convention in the Fourth District Reconvenes at Piqua and Resumes Balloting Without Any Material Change from the Voting at Greenville—Other State Dispatches.

PIQUA, O., Sept. 4.—The Fourth district Democratic congressional convention which adjourned after casting 600 ballots without result, at Greenville, six weeks ago, resumed here at 11 o'clock yesterday. Gen. J. O. Ames, chairman.

The 600th ballot at Greenville was: Anderson, 72; Gantz, 44; Marsh, 48; Marshall, 36; Chance, 30. Necessary to a choice, 115.

The 601st ballot, and the first taken here, stood: Chance, 30; Anderson, 64; Marsh, 47; Gantz, 46; Marshall, 37. Twenty-one more ballots were taken without change, and the convention recessed for dinner.

The convention opened at 1:30 o'clock, and on the 624th ballot Champaign county cast 27 votes for Gantz. The result of the ballot was: Anderson, 64; Gantz, 73; Chance, 8; Marshal, 37; Marsh 47. The Champaign and Preble county delegations withdrew for consultation. Champaign again cast her vote for Gantz, but the ballot resulted practically as before. On the 626th ballot Champaign again voted for Gantz, but on the following ballot again returned to Chance.

The 700 ballot resulted as follows: Chance 29, Anderson 74, Marsh 50, Marshall 36, Gantz 36. Four more ballots were taken after supper without material change and a motion was carried to appoint a committee to prepare a plan to break the dead-lock. Champaign county delegates got into a wrangle over the appointment of their man, and the convention adjourned with no prospects of nominating a candidate.

Thirteenth District Republicans.

LOGAN, O., Sept. 4. The Republican congressional convention for the Thirteenth district, composed of the counties of Fairfield, Hocking, Jackson, Morgan, Perry and Vinton, met here at half-past 11 and effected a temporary organization, with Capt. J. R. Keller, of Fairfield, as chairman, and O. E. Vollenweider, of Jackson, as secretary. After appointing the different committees, an adjournment was had until 2 o'clock.

The convention reassembled and received and adopted the report of the committee on credentials and on permanent organization. The permanent organization was as follows:

Chairman, John Q. Abbott, of Morgan; secretary, S. S. McDonald, of Perry, with an assistant secretary and vice president from each county.

Hon. J. B. McNeill, of Fairfield; Judge S. H. Bright, of Hocking; W. T. Lewis, of Perry, and Hon. Samuel Llewellyn, of Jackson, were placed before the convention, but W. L. Lewis was nominated.

Collision on the B. & O.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Sept. 4.—There was a bad rear end collision on the Baltimore and Ohio road at this place yesterday, five loaded cars and one engine being completely demolished. The wreck was caused by the conductor of the first train not sending back a flagman when he left the train on the main track to do some switching.

Missing Boy's Body Found.

SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 4.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Charles Schank, aged 12 years, from his home here, was cleared up yesterday by the finding of his body on the lake beach ten miles below here. He had fallen into the bay and was drowned.

Traveling Man Suicides.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 4.—James Duffy, aged 30, traveling salesman for Haywood & Merrill [illegible] company, of Chicago, committed suicide at the Beckel house last night by taking laudanum.

A Boarding-House Trust.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The trust mania has penetrated into the realms of boarding house keepers. [illegible] a company of forty [illegible] representing the restaurant and boardinghouse interests of [illegible] met in high council and formed a union. They discussed the [illegible] of placing a uniform price on [illegible] by the day and by the week, and [illegible] was a unanimous feeling that a [illegible] firm advance in the present rates was the panacea for the present unhealthy state of their business. The price of all produce and table supplies has been gradually rising during the summer until it has arrived at a point where their business has become unprofitable. Now they will try organization.

HIAWATHA VANISHES.

Big Blaze in the Heart of a Bustling Kansas Town.

HIAWATHA, Kan., Sept. 4.—The worst fire ever known in this city broke out at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning in William Horne's livery stable and in no less than three hours it had destroyed two and a half blocks in the business center of the city, causing a loss of at least $150,000.

The greatest loss was the First National bank building, owned by Congressman Morrill. The vault, containing $50,000 in currency and many valuable books and papers, gave way under the intense heat, and its contents were entirely destroyed.

For over two hours a furious wind from the north drove the fire southward, but about 3 o'clock the wind died down.

There are only one fire engine in the city, and should the wind rise again the whole of the business portion of the city will be wiped out. At 3 a. m. the fire was still raging. The fire engine had a small stream on the buildings near the Hitch block, but it is doubtful if this block can be saved.

The destruction at 3 a. m. includes the First National bank building, the Odd Fellows' building, two of the best livery stables in the city, the grocery store of J. A. McGuire, loss, $6,000; Grimes & Love, hardware, loss $5,000; the Kentucky hotel, loss $5,000; livery stable of James Haver, loss $3,000; John White's grocery, loss $5,000; Blue Trout livery stable, loss $8,000. These are but a few of the losses.

BARBAROUS CRUELTY.

A Boy Almost Beaten to Death by His Inhuman Parents.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 4.—A special to The Times from East Liverpool, O., says: Word comes from Walkers, a small hamlet situated between this place and Wellsville, of a case of barbarous cruelty, which occurred there a day or two ago. Elias Glass lives there and works in the sewer pipe works at that place. His wife works in the glass factory in this city. Both are absent from home through the day, and the house is left in left in care of their young children. The youngest child is about a year old and the oldest is a half-witted boy about 14 years old. While the parents were away, as usual, the baby became fretful, and its cries so enraged the boy that he lifted its skirts and placed the little one on a hot stove and held it there until it was burned in a horrible manner.

When the mother returned home in the evening and heard from the other children what had happened, she bared the boy's back, and with a stout strap, on the end of which was a buckle, beat him until his back was covered with blood and bruises. Later, when the father returned home and was informed of what had occurred, he stripped the boy's legs, took a lid from the stove and applied it to the bare limbs of the boy in several places, searing him terribly at every touch. The township authorities, hearing of the affair, had the parents arrested.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

UNITED TYPOTHETAE.

Proceedings of the Second Day's Session Held in Boston.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 4.—At the second day's session of the United Typothetae Mr. Pettibone, of Chicago, for the committee on apprenticeship system, presented an extended report, in which the revival of the system in some form was strongly urged on the ground that such revival would tend to make better workmen, do away with the labor troubles and bring in a much better class of men. The committee hopes that active steps may be taken in deciding which system may be the best.

Secretary Wallace, of Philadelphia, presented a protest against the re-establishment of the apprenticeship system, expressing the belief that the system was a back number and that a substitute for it would be found in the mechanical trade schools.

A resolution was adopted memorializing congress to pass an amendment to the present copyright law more definitely defining what may and may not be lawful subjects for copyright.

A motion for correspondence on the subject on copyright with other affiliated bodies was carried.

Mr. Shepard, of Toronto, extended an invitation to the convention to meet there in 1893.

Mr. Innis, of St. Louis, spoke against the Chase international copyright bill. The convention then adjourned.

A Woman's Sentence.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Emily Cavannaugh, who on the evening of July 24, endeavored to riddle her actor husband, John Cavannaugh, with bullets, at the corner of Irving Place and Fourteenth street, was yesterday sentenced to five years and four months in the state prison.

Three People Burned to Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—By the explosion of a coal oil lamp early yesterday morning at 1,504 Germantown avenue, the house was set on fire and Mrs. Sarah McIntyre, 60 years old; Mamie McIntyre, 10 years old, and Annie Logue, 17 years old, were burned to death.

Eighth Minnesota District.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 4.—An Eau Claire, Wis., special to The Tribune says: The Eighth district Democratic congressional convention nominated William F. Bailey.

Millionaire's Son Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—Lawrence Lewis, Jr., a well known young lawyer of this city, and the only son of the retired millionaire, Robert M. Lewis, was struck and instantly killed by a train while crossing the track at Frazier station yesterday morning.

The Purest and Best

Articles known to medical science are used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every ingredient is carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. The medicine is prepared under the supervision of thoroughly competent pharmacists, and every step in the process of manufacture is carefully watched with a view to securing in Hood's Sarsaparilla the best possible result.

THURSDAY, - - SEPTEMBER 4.

A LATE special dispatch from Cincinnati announces that Gen'l Edwin S. Noyes, ex-governor of Ohio, dropped dead in the court house at that city today, of apoplexy. Cincinnati was both shocked and saddened by the unwelcome news. General Noyes has been a conspicuous figure in Ohio, and ranked high among the great men of the state He was eminent in legal ability and prominent as a statesman.

Will Be Second to None.

Vice President Thomas is quoted as follows in speaking of the proposed improvements on the Chicago and Erie:

"The task of putting in running order a road running from the first to the second city in the country is no small one. There is no money in a second-class road, and I have already started out gravel trains which will work day and night to make the road just what it should be. It will be second to none in the country when we finish. We have not yet decided on the officials of the road. That will be done at a meeting of the Erie directors to be held in New York within ten days. However much we may wish it there seems no chance of retaining Receiver Malott's services. He is a gentleman of independent means and he told me today that he could not longer afford to neglect his banking and railroad interests in Indianapolis."

Low Rates to the Ohio State Fair.

The Ohio State Fair opens Sept. 15th, and closes Sept. 19th, for which occasion the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo railway will sell excursion tickets from Marion to Columbus and return at the very low rate of $1.40 for the round trip. Tickets will be good going on all regular and special trains from Sept. 15th to 19th inclusive, and good returning until Saturday, Sept. 20th, inclusive.

On Sept. 16th, 17th and 18th, a special train will leave Marion at 5:40 a.m., arriving at Columbus 7:15 a.m., returning special train will leave Columbus at 9:40 p.m., running as far north as Upper Sandusky only. Other trains leave Columbus at 5:00 a.m. and 10:05 a.m. and 3:45 p.m. The State Fair will be more attractive than ever this year. Acres of machinery will be in motion; trotting, pacing and running races each day. Don't fail to attend the State Fair.

An Ostrich Farm.

Sells Brothers recently bought all the ostriches on the famous Santa Ana, Cal., ostrich farm, and will carry the full flock of ostriches with their big show this season, after which it is their intention of establishing an ostrich farm either at Columbus, Ohio, or at Topeka, Kas., at both of which cities they have vast real estate possessions An experienced keeper travels with the birds and will explain the details of ostrich-breeding. The feathers of these birds last year were sold to a New York firm for $15,000, but this year they were not plucked, and their beautiful plumage will attrack the admiration of all who see them. This is only one feature of over one hundred absolutely new things to be seen in the allied shows. Sells Brothers and Barrett's shows will exhibit in union at Marion, Saturday, Sept. 6.

The Kindergarden.

The theatrical season at Music Hall was opened Wednesday evening to a crowded house, the Kindergarden Co. presenting the musical comedy of that name. The Kindergarden has been seen here before, when it was possibly in better hands, but there is an excuse for the present company inasmuch as this was the fourth stand of the season. Nevertheless the play was apparently very much enjoyed by a large portion of the audience, while some expressed dissappointment. The excellent orchestra is an enjoyable feature of the show, which a Marion audience can appreciate. The company left today for Delaware, where it plays this evening.

Busy Bee Dining Hall.

J. E. Scheaffer, formerly of Plymouth, Ohio, has leased the grocery room in the Magruder building, and tomorrow will open the Busy Bee Dining Hall for business. The room has been renovated, repaired and repapered and the place made quite attractive.

The management announces to the public a first-class restaurant and dining hall, without the saloon attachment. The regular meals at 25 cents will be made the best that the price affords, and in the oyster line the public will be served in a way that has not heretofore been known in Marion. The public is invited to become acquainted with the Busy Bee

To the People of Marion.

Having purchased the Marion Steam Laundry, I will at once refit the plant in every department with the latest improved machinery. This work will be commenced Monday, Sept. 8th and will necessitate the closing of the laundry for a few days. Being a professional laundryman and now a resident of your town, I ask a share of your patronage, feeling confident of giving satisfaction in every particular First-class work when promised will be my motto.

Goods called for and delivered to any part of the city.

J. C. ANTHONY.

—Thomas Watkins was at the Kenton fair today

—Ed Sharpless was among those at Kenton today.

—Joe Ryan spent Wednesday at Richwood on business.

—G. H. Kling has returned from a short visit at Paulding Ohio.

—Mrs. H. M. Ault is slightly indisposed, at her home on south West street.

—Mrs. A. C. Edmondson and little daughter, [illegible], are visiting friends at Lima —A. D. Matthews is indisposed and was unable to be at his desk in the Mirror office today.

—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Warington, in North Marion, this morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Barlow have arrived home, after a very pleasant vacation at Mackinac Island.

—Mrs. A. R. Clegern, nee Miss May Seffner, of Mansfield, Ohio, is making a short visit with relatives in the city.

—Lorin Rhoads, one of Marion's valuable young printers, was smiling on the young ladies at the Kenton fair today.

—Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Magruder, of Cincinnati, are visiting Mr. Magruder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Magruder.

—Messrs. W. S. Frash and J. E. Phillips have returned from New York, whither they had gone to purchase dry goods.

—Misses Linnie Dickerson, of Crestline, and Lulu Dickerson, of Corsica, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. R. T. Parkinson.

—Mrs. Geo. Key and daughter, Emma, and Mrs. J. C. Burrell arrived safe this morning, having spent a pleasant summer in Scotland.

—Mrs. Thomas Jeffrey, of Columbus, arrived in the city Wednesday evening, to visit relatives here the remainder of the week.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston were to leave VanWert today, for Casa Grande, Arizona, with the intention of making that their home.

—Miss Lilly R. Moore returned to Akron Wednesday, having spent about three weeks very pleasantly with her friend, Mrs. E. A. Seffner.

—The infant child of Samuel Kerr, near Cochranton, whose mother died several weeks ago, died this morning, and will be buried Friday.

—H. M. Ault, G. W. Walters, D. H. Clifton, John McElvey, J. D. Guthery and B. W. Kent left today for Kenton, to attend the fair at that place.

—Policeman Ruhl is recovering from a week's attack of sickness, and will soon be able to look after his duties again. Henry Burkhart has been doing his rounds for him.

—Lyman Dann, of Columbus, has joined Mrs. Dann on a visit with her father, Mr. Jacob Fribley. Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Smith, of Delaware, are also visiting at Mr. Fribley's home.

—Judge Smalley convened court this forenoon, and the motion for a new trial in the case of Anthony against Guthery was argued. This case was decided at the last term of court in favor of defendant.

—Miss Mame Jackson, who has attended the lunch counter at the C. and A. eating house several years, leaves for a visit in the East Friday, where she will remain a week, and will then go to Sacramento, Cal., to make her home in future with her father.

—Mrs. Burton Morey, wife of the carpenter living on Delaware avenue, opposite the cemetery, died at her home at an early hour this morning from paralysis of the stomach, at the age of about 50 years. The funeral services will occur Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the house, and burial will take place at the Marion cemetery.

—Cora Clark, a young girl formerly employed at Hotel Marion but recently working at Marzetti's fruit stand, was taken seriously ill this morning with hysteric epilepsy. She has since been suffering with repeated spasms, which it was feared would prove fatal but she is some better this afternoon. Drs. Hamilton and Uhler have the case in charge. The girl's home is at Richwood.

—Col. VanBrimer called at the STAR office today and displayed apparent offense at a misleading statement in Wednesday's issue. The Colonel was not arrested after his speech, but the city prison was given up to him so that he might sleep off the enervating effects of his eloquence This statement is made in order to contradict any impression derogatory to the Colonel's established reputation.

—Several changes have been made in the public schools, in the way of transfer of scholars. A new D Primary school has been created in the South building, which will be in charge of Miss Emma [illegible], promoted from the A Primary. Miss Ethel Cunningham goes from the D Primary of the North building to the A Primary South, taking the place of Miss [illegible]. Mrs. S. P. [illegible] takes the D Primary of the North, her old post.

—News has just reached here that Cate Welch, well and favorably known here, but now agent of the C. H. V. and T. railroad at Middleport, was married to a young lady of that place a week ago. Cate's Marion friends will hope that the report is true, that they may wish him and his wife happiness and prosperity. They will congratulate him on his success in hieing away and marrying the lady against parental objections, as the story goes.

FREE BAPTISTS AT LARUE.

The State Association Has a Valuable Day Wednesday.

Special to the STAR.]

LARUE, O., Sept. 4—Wednesday's work was begun by a thirty minutes' prayer and praise service, led by Rev. A. H. Ballenger, Centerburg, O., and proved a blessing to all present.

Then followed the address of welcome by the pastor, Rev. A. Crabtree, LaRue, which was responded to by Rev. O. D Patch, Cleveland, O. Both speeches produced a happy effect upon the strangers present, causing all to feel at home at once.

Rev. J. E. Cox, Green Camp, O., read a paper on "The Ideal Church," which called out some lively discussions, waking up the drowsy ones and resting the tired.

"State Agency," by Rev. T. H. Drake, the agent of the association, was the paper which caused the longest discussion of the day, and was finally disposed of by resolution, which was referred to the executive committee.

The executive committee's report showed that much work had been done by the association, that its interests had been carefully guarded and its funds judiciously expended.

Rev. D. B. Martin, Pierpont, O., vice president, has presided at all the meetings.

A good missionary meeting, closing with an address from Rev. M. J. Coldren, returned missionary, closed the day's work.

Thursday will close the work of this session, and bids fair to be a busy day for all engaged in the work of the association.

Will Go to Marion.

[Van Wert Bulletin.]

J. C. Anthony, of this city, has bought the Marion Steam Laundry, at Marion, Ohio, and will go over in a few days to take charge of the works. As a former owner of the Crescent laundry Mr. Anthony has a large experience in the business and his Marion customers may be assured of first-class work. Mr. Anthony's family will remain in this city for two or three weeks yet.

Royal Arcanum, Notice.

All members who desire to attend the banquet to be given by Bucyrus council next week are requested to be at the meeting tonight to complete arrangements. By order of the Regent.

—The Chicago and Erie Railway Co. has ordered seventeen engines to be put in condition to pull forty cars each from Huntington to Galion. This is not an encouraging bit of news to Marion, but it was distorted into a rumor this morning that the order had been for an addition of seventeen new stalls to the local roundhouse. The first statement here is undoubtedly correct, as it was obtained from a conductor who saw the order.

—Patrick Haley is confined to his home on Farming street with fever.

Should Have Said So at First.

"Look here," said the hungry guest at a summer resort hotel, "I wanted that steak and coffee some time today—not next week."

"Yoh didn' say dat when yoh give de ohdah, sah," replied the waiter in tones of great deference.—Washington Post.

Why He Wore Them.

Chully—Fweddy, old boy, what are you wearing those big spectacles for?

Fweddy—Because all the snobs, don't y' know, weah a single eyeglawss. I weah these lahge spectacles to let 'em know I'm not a doosid snob, bah Jove!—Chicago Tribune.

Cause for Sadness.

"What's the matter? You look so sad."

"My uncle's condition troubles me."

"Why, I saw him a little while ago, and he seemed to enjoy perfect health."

"That is exactly what troubles me!"—Texas Siftings.

The Land of Liberty.

Excited Citizen—Officer! Officer! A man has just jumped off of that pier.

Policeman (who can't swim)—Well, there ain't no law agi'n bathin' with clothes on, is there?—Life.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial, that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

Sick Headache

IS a complaint from which many suffer and few are entirely free. Its cause is indigestion and a sluggish liver, the cure for which is readily found in the use of Ayer's Pills.

"I have found that for sick headache, caused by a disordered condition of the stomach, Ayer's Pills are the most reliable remedy."—Samuel C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

"After the use of Ayer's Pills for many years, in my practice and family, I am justified in saying that they are an excellent cathartic and liver medicine—sustaining all the claims made for them."—W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & N. W. Railway Co., Burnet, Texas.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered stomach and liver. I suffered for over three years from headache, indigestion, and constipation. I had no appetite and was weak and nervous most of the time. By using three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured."—Philip Lockwood, Topeka, Kansas.

"I was troubled for years with indigestion, constipation, and headache. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, used in small daily doses, restored me to health. They are prompt and effective."—W. H. Strout, Meadville, Pa.

RAILWAY TIES.

The Russian government is building a railroad in almost a straight line from Moscow to Behring sea, which it is expected will be completed within five years.

Jay Cooke, who was once the financial head of the Northern Pacific and whose disastrous failure precipitated the panic of 1873, has accumulated another fortune.

During the first three months of 1890 there were exported from Scotland locomotives of a total value of £90,402, against a quarterly average of £90,000 in 1889, and of £71,000 in 1888.

The popular belief that great speed is attended with great danger is not confirmed by the experience on English railways. In 1887 700,000,000 passengers were carried and only one fatal accident occurred.

A block system apparatus was recently exhibited which automatically rings a bell or blows a whistle in the cab of an engine entering a block that is occupied by another train. The noise continues until the train ahead leaves the block.

Cars on the Jungfrau railway have movable flaps, which may be expanded until they nearly touch the tunnel lining. In this way the car becomes a kind of piston acting in the tunnel as a cylinder, and the air acts as an automatic brake.

The Baltimore and Ohio is using coke on several engines hauling the fast trains between Philadelphia and Washington. The only change made in the locomotive is to increase the opening between the grate bars about 25 per cent. and to substitute a variable for a fixed exhaust.

A remarkable invention has been made in Austria whereby the serious results from railway collisions are prevented. Glass tubes project before the train, and if they are broken by an obstacle an electric movement is applied to the brakes, bringing the train immediately to a standstill.

In order to expedite the delivery of mails between the United States and Europe, the postmaster general has proposed and will endeavor to carry out, on the ships of the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyds lines, a system of marine post office service similar to that of the railway postoffice service.

Statistics of the progress and prospects of railway construction in the states south of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi river for 1890, show that 802 miles of track have been laid since Jan. 1, 1890, and 2,814 miles are in process of construction; 4,883 miles are located as under surveyal, and 7,450 miles projected, with fair prospects of construction.

Grand Secretary E. V. Debs, of the Locomotive Firemen, estimates the numerical strength of the different railroad organizations as follows: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, 20,000; Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, 18,000; Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, 16,000; Switchmen's Mutual Aid association, 6,000; Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, 2,000.

A new method for ventilating railway carriages and preventing dust from entering with the air has lately appeared in France. The more quickly the train moves the more rapidly the apparatus works. The air is made to traverse a receptacle containing water, which cools it and relieves it of dust, after which it goes through another filtering before entering the carriage.

SCIENTIFIC SQUIBS.

The electric spark has been photographed by means of a special camera, in which the sensitive plate rotated 2,500 times a minute.

By spraying the region of the external ear with ether, Drs. Henoque and Fridel, of Paris, render the dental nerves insensible, and extract teeth without pain or general anaesthesia.

Two French biologists, MM. Apostoli and Laquerriere, have hit upon a new weapon against all diseases occasioned by bacteria. This weapon is none other than a constant galvanic current of a low degree of intensity.

A series of observations for 100 consecutive days has been made at the top of the Eiffel tower on the velocity of the wind. The velocity at that elevation was three times in the average greater than nearer the ground.

It is supposed that the loss of light from electric lamps in a fog, as compared with the yellow gaslight, is owing to the blueness of the fog or mist, the electric light merely intensifying the blueness, while the gas still pierces the gloom.

In the new audio-telephone that has recently appeared in England the principal characteristic is the mouthpiece, the particular advantage of which is that it intensifies the sound waves, making it possible to carry on a conversation in an ordinary tone of voice.

A new shell has lately been invented by an Austrian for the purpose of scattering oil over the waves during a storm. It is a wooden cylinder, lined with shellac to keep the oil from penetrating the wood, and it carries in addition a calcium light, which illuminates the water for a considerable distance.

WHAT THEY USED TO DO.

Cato, at 80 years of age, began to learn the Greek language.

Plutarch, when between 70 and 80, commenced the study of Latin.

Orange tawny was the ancient color appropriated to clerks. It was also the color worn by the Jews.

The early Norseman used to place the Viking in his ship and "send him flaming out to sea" with all his belongings.

The Thibetians in the olden days cut in pieces the bodies of their dead and threw them into the lakes to feed the fish.

The ancient Bactrians suffered the bodies of their departed releatives to be eaten by dogs specially kept for the purpose.

Out of seventy-six Irish kings who ruled between A. D. 4 and 1172, no less than fifty two died violent deaths either in battle, by murder, or by thunderbolts (by the latter three were slain).

COURTLY PASTIMES.

King William of Holland will at any time turn aside from the discussion of business to have a game of cards.

The young emperor of Germany adores chess, and will hang over a table for hours at a time trying to work out a problem.

The czar is devoted to the game of tric trac, and whenever he gets a leisure hour he will slip away to indulge in his favorite pastime.

The future king of England, the Prince of Wales, is devoted to cards and horse racing, and gives about as much time to the one as to the other.

King Humbert of Italy is never so happy as when on a fishing expedition. He will patiently wait for hours for a bite, and expresses unbounded gratification when he has good luck.

STRAY BITS

Felix Moscheles is to paint Mary Anderson Navarro in her bridal robe.

The deepest mine in the world is at St. Andre du Poirier, France, and it yearly produces 300,000 tons of coal.

Wag Yin Wan, a Chinese millionaire, has bought 15,000,000 acres of land in Tehuantepec, where he will establish a city.

A hungry horse made a meal on half a box of straw hats, near which his employer had tied him, before a dry goods store in Norristown, Pa.

Frau August Schmidt, of Berlin, 33 years old, recently announced the birth of her sixteenth child. She has had four pairs of twins, and is the wife of a porter.

The Cunard Steamship company employs not less than 10,000 men, and during the past forty-four years has lost neither a vessel nor a life through accident.

At an equality of age the male is generally heavier than the female, except toward the age of 12, when the average weight in both sexes is about the same.

One of the Berlin hotels was lately robbed by two persons in the garb of nuns. They were subsequently apprehended, when one of them was discovered to be a man.

The electric battery has superseded the hose and cold water treatment for taming refractory prisoners in the Ohio penitentiary. It is reported to be very efficacious.

The Pacific coast has not a monopoly on big trees. There is a cyprus tree at Enterprise, Fla., that is 10¼ feet in diameter and has a trunk 40 feet in length to the first limb.

The tombstone of the late Mrs. Ann D. Carter, of Philadelphia, bears the following lines cut in marble:

Some have children and some have none,
But here lies the mother of twenty-one.

Heligoland used to be Germany's Gretna Green. Ninety-three runaway couples were married there last year. The island now being under German rule, such marriages cannot take place.

The most magnificent charity fund ever contributed in the world's history was the Johnstown relief fund, which amounted to $4,116,801. Besides this, there were great quantities of the necessaries of life given.

A Hartland, Mich., woman thought she heard burglars while her husband was away and, getting an old horse pistol, she blazed away at something she saw in the road. Her husband now bewails the loss of a $200 mule that she fired at.

Richard Tevithick built the first locomotive in 1804, but the first locomotive after the modern idea was built by George Stephenson in 1829. The idea of the construction of a locomotive was given to the world by James Watt in 1769, and patented by him in 1784.

GRAINS OF GOLD.

A good example is the best sermon.

Malice drinketh up the greatest part of its own poison.

Fill a man with enthusiasm, and no room is left for doubt.

The future destiny of the child is always the work of the mother.

Employment is nature's physician, and is essential to human happiness.

Abuse is one of the few things a man can get without earning or deserving it.

You can flatter the worst idler on earth by telling him he is working too hard.

Leisure is sweet to those who have earned it, but burdensome to those who get it for nothing.

There is very little use in making today cloudy because to-morrow is likely to be stormy.

Hurt no man's feelings unnecessarily. There are thorns in abundance in the path of human life.

Learning is a good thing for a man to have in his upper story if he has common sense on the ground floor.

Let us be of good cheer, remembering that the misfortunes hardest to bear are those which never come.

Constant application to pleasure takes away from the enjoyment, or rather turns it into the nature of a very burdensome and laborious business.

The happiness that is quite understood at last becomes tiresome. To give it a zest we must have ups and downs. The difficulties which are usually mingled with love awaken passion and increase pleasure.

There is an oblique way of reproof which takes off the sharpness of it, and an address in flattery which makes it agreeable, though never so gross, but of all flatterers the most skillful is he who can do what you like without saying anything which argues he does it for your sake.—London Young Ladies' Journal.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Guy de Maupassant has offered to the committee of the Theatre Francaise a one act play in verse called "Histoire du Vieux Temps."

Joseph Haworth will act during the coming season in "A Man of the World" and "Aunt Jack," under the management of H. S. Taylor.

Joseph Kainz, the famous Munich court actor, has closed a contract with Gustav Amberg, of New York, for forty performances at $400 a night.

Wm. A. Brady, the young California manager, was four years ago a property man in a San Francisco theatre. Today he is worth $70,000, all of which he has made himself.

One scene, painted by Hoyt, in "The Merry Monarch," a comic opera, is called the corridor of the elephants. The ceiling of porphyry and various agates is supported by huge statues of elephants.

The Earl and Countess of Pembroke have had "As You Like It" played in the quadrangle of Wilton house, Salisbury, where it is said "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was once played in Shakespeare's time.

Howard P. Taylor, author and adapter of several successful plays, has secured the right to dramatize Mark Twain's last book, "A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court." It will be a spectacular comedy.

The Swanzey farm buried in snow amid the hills of New Hampshire is the picture that the managers of "The Old Homestead" intend to make a feature of in the last act of the play when it begins its fourth season in New York.

A Desire to Be Known.

Briggs—I think I shall wear this suit when I go to Europe.

Griggs—You are evidently determined to make a noise in the world.—Clothier and Furnisher.

In Defiance of Law.

Hair Dresser—It cost me $20 for shaving Sunday.

Ready wit—Is it possible? I didn't know before that Sunday had whiskers!—Lowell Citizen.

LIGHT AND AIRY.

He Envied It.

A pretty girl with a horrid cold
Spoke to a horrid man
And said, "A cold's a horrid thing."
And then to cough began—
"Sometimes I think—in fact I fear"—
This said between each cough—
"That by this horrid cold some day
I will be carried off."
The horrid man then told anew
The story that is old—
"I wish," said he, "that I might be
That horrid, horrid cold."
—Whiteside Herald.

His Question.

Young Mr. Hankinson had sat in embarrassed silence for some moments looking at the shapely fingers of the lovely girl as if taking the measure of one of them for a golden circlet. Presently he spoke.

"Miss Pinkie," he said, "you will not think I am taking too great a liberty, I hope, if I ask you a—a somewhat personal question?"

"Certainly not, Mr. Hankinson," replied Miss Pinkie, softly.

"Then please tell me," he rejoined, "how you got those warts off your knuckle. My little sister's hands are covered with them."—Chicago Tribune.

She Was Joking.

"No," said she, "I—I can be only a sister to you."

"Very well," said he, "I must be going! I had expected a different answer, but—well, good night!"

"George," she faltered, as he started out into the night, "George!"

"What is it?" he asked crossly.

"Aren't you going to kiss your sister good night?"

He did not go.—Lawrence American.

Disappointing.

He had pleaded long and earnest,
Sued with prayer and sued with sigh,
But although the time sped swiftly
She had deigned him no reply;
Yet at last her lips were opened,
All his fear and dread were gone,
And he waited for her answer,
But 'twas nothing but a yawn.
—Philadelphia Times.

Her Regards.

"You look upon me at least as a friend?" he murmured, grasping her hand.

She threw down her eyes and her voice whispered:

"Oh, yes."

"And can I dare to hope to be looked upon as a still nearer, dearer relation?"

She spoke cordially and freely, as a maiden should:

"Certainly; I will henceforth regard you as a brother."—Philadelphia Times.

She Escaped a Punster.

"Clara—Miss Simpkins," he murmured, as he reached for his hat after her declination, "when you think of a little road where we used to wander in the happy month of July, beneath the branches of the green trees, I pray you think of me. For I am like that little road—a lover slain;" and so he passed out of her sight.

And then she was glad she had answered no.—Harper's Bazar.

Oh!

"But, sir, to kiss
A miss
Is wrong, you see."
"I do not kiss
Amiss
When I kiss thee."
—Washington Post.

Not That Day.

"Did any man ever kiss you before, darling?"

"Before—today? No, Edward, you are the first."

And the recording angel didn't need to drop a tear to blot out the fib, for he was the first that had kissed her that day.—Philadelphia Times.

Natural Mistake.

Handsome Young Woman (pointing to hammock)—How much?

Salesman—We guarantee it for 600 pouer—beg pardon, miss. One dollar and fifty cents.—Chicago Tribune.

A Clew.

Within a hammock snug they sat;
But how the two behaved
One could not tell, it was so dark,
Had it not been for the remark,
"O George, you must get shaved!"
—Philadelphia Press.

Restitution.

Mabel (relenting a little, but still a trifle angry)—Any thing I have of yours I will return at once.

Charlie (giving her a kiss)—Well, there's your opportunity.—Philadelphia Press.

The Dear Girls.

Flossie—I made a large collection of beautiful stones while I was at the seaside.

Maud—So did I; but mine were all set in engagement rings when I got them.—Munsey's Weekly.

He Saw Them.

"There's a man," she said as he kissed her once
"Man? Where?" was his query then
"In the moon." "Well, poor fellow, here's one for him."
And with that he kissed her again.
—Philadelphia Times.

A Fond Husband.

Billy—So you have returned from your bridal tour. What did you see on the trip that pleased you most?

John—My wife.—Texas Siftings.

Misunderstood.

She (as he places his arm around her waist)—Stop right where you are, sir!

He (taking a firmer hold)—Willingly, my dear.—Epoch.

The Why of It.

"What a stout, heavy race the Germans are!"

"Yes. They are all Twotons, you know."—Chatter.

At a Watering Place.

Four and forty girls looked out
And saw beyond a man
"He's coming here," he heard them shout,
And then he turned and ran.
—New York Herald.

Enough for the Present.

First Belligerent—Want any more?

Second Belligerent (breaking into a run)—If I do I'll notify you by letter.—Epoch.

Propinquitous.

"Her father is rather close, isn't he?"

"Yes—so darned close Ethel and I have to whisper most of the time."—Epoch.

A Short Hug.

Ella—Were you ever pressed for time?

Bella—Not for a very long time.—Lowell Citizen.

Cruel Fate.

He sighed with his hand on his heart;
Before her he went on his knees;
He'd have acted the true lover's part
If fate hadn't forced him to sneeze.
—Harper's Bazar.

ON LOVE AND MARRIAGE.

A Group of Witty Paragraphs Collected by Chatter.

At the Ladies' College. Miss Joy—Madam, Mr Foster has come to take me for a drive; may I go?

"You know, Miss Joy, the rules of the college do not allow it unless you are engaged. Are you engaged to Mr. Foster?"

Miss Joy (doubtfully)—N—o, but—if you will let me go I shall be by the time we get back.—English Paper.

Old Richfellow (desperately)—If you refuse me, what is there left for me to do?

Sweet Girl—Well, I read the other day about a rich man who made his will in favor of the woman who refused him and then went out and hung himself.—Petit Journal Pour Rire.

Two friends are conversing. "Take my advice and get married."

"I have a horror of perpetual slavery."

"Ah, my dear boy, if you could only find a wife like mine—so good, so kind, so affectionate, so devoted."

"Well, then, I'll wait till she's a widow."—English Exchange.

A girl who had received a declaration of love in a typewriter letter replied that she was "not to be wooed by machinery. It doesn't put an arm around you and you don't feel anything, you know. You can't tell positively whether anything has happened or not when it takes place by post."—The Amsterdammer.

Mother—Well, Katie, you have had quite a lively chat with the young barrister. Has he declared himself at last?

Katie—Y-e-s; you see, ma, all the time he was smoking his cigar he kept puffing rings into the air, and I am perfectly sure he intended that as a covert allusion to the engagement and wedding rings.—Leipziger Nachrichten.

Only a Mistake.

Little 3-year-old Tom Gibson, of California, ought to make a good lawyer if he keeps on. One day not long ago his father said to him:

"Tom, get my slippers; they are under the bed."

Pretty soon Tom came back empty handed.

"Fader," said he, "you told a big lie."

"How is that?" said his father.

"Well," replied Tom, "I looked under the bed and no slippers there. No slippers there, fader."

"That wasn't a lie, my son," replied his father. "That was a mistake."

The slippers were found and the incident forgotten until a few days afterward. Tom came running into the house with his lips betraying visible evidence that he had been eating.

"Tom," said his mother, "what have you been eating?"

"Nothing, mother," replied Tom.

"Why, Tom," said his mother, "there are crumbs all over your mouth. Don't you know you have told me a story?"

"No," replied Tom, promptly, "that was a mistake."

The Lawyer's Fee.

"I've stolen a coat," said a man to a lawyer, "and I want you to defend me. Think you can prove me innocent?"

"Oh, yes, we can prove that you were a hundred miles away when the coat was stolen and that the prosecution is malicious."

"How much will you charge?"

"What sort of a coat is it?"

"First rate—never been worn."

"Well, I won't charge you anything; just give me the coat."—London Tid Bits.

The Latest.

Police Magistrate—The case seems clear enough against you. The officers caught you coming out of a chicken house at midnight with a pullet under each arm. How can you explain that if you were not stealing chickens?

Hard Looking Citizen—Don't know anything about it, y'r honor. I was hypnotized.—Chicago Tribune.

A Short Cut.

Tenant—The windows in your house shut so badly that my hair blows all about my head. You must really have something done to them.

Landlord—I don't see the necessity for that. It would be much simpler for you to have your hair cut.—Fliegende Blatter.

A Good Idea.

Mr. J. Tony Dresser (getting measured)—Ha ha! I heard of a funny firm out west. It's a partnership of two men in the same building; one is a tailor and the other a lawyer.

Mr. Casimer Pance (getting tired)—I s'pose the tailor makes the clothes and the lawyer collects the bills.—Puck.

An Appropriate Name.

"That's your new terrier, is it? She's a beauty!"

"She ought to be at the price. Come here, Di!"

"Di? What do you call her, Diana?"

"No. Diamond; because she's such a dear little thing."—Philadelphia Times.

An Act of Courage.

Romantic Person—He is penniless and without prospects, and yet she loves and will marry him.

Practical Person—Brave, brave girl!

"But why so particularly brave?"

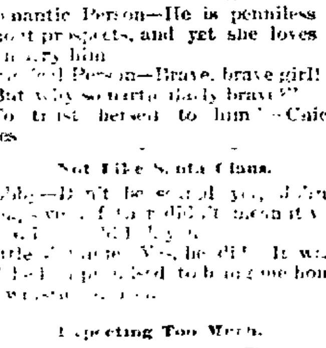
"To trust herself to him."—Chicago Times.

Not Like Santa Claus.

Bobby—Don't be scared, you, Miss Jennie. Papa [illegible] didn't mean it when he [illegible]

Little [illegible]—Yes, he did. It wasn't as if he [illegible] to bring me home a new [illegible]

Expecting Too Much.



Customer—These nails I bought here yesterday are in a terrible condition. Half of them are rusty.

Salesman (indignantly)—Well, what if they are? You don't suppose we can manicure every pound that goes out, do you?—Munsey's Weekly.

"Five years ago I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and had been given up by my physicians. I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after using two bottles of this medicine, was completely cured."—Anga A. Lewis, Ricard, N. Y.

The First Symptoms of Death.

Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under positive gaurantee. Sold by H. C. Hoberman & Co. and W. B. Foye.

Carpenters' Strike Ended.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The carpenters' strike is to all appearance already ended. At the headquarters of the strike committee of the carpenters' council it was stated that fully [illegible] men had already returned to work at the rate of pay and terms demanded, and that not over 600 men are now idle on account of the strike.

A Good Nurse

Should not hesitate to wait upon those ill with such diseases as small-pox, cholera or scarlet fever. There is little to be feared by persons waiting on the sick if they will use Darbys Prophylactic Fluid freely. In sick rooms it should be exposed on a plate or saucer, and the patient sponged off with the Fluid diluted. For safety, cleanliness and comfort in the sick room the fluid is indispensable.

Pittsburg Exposition Opened.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 4.—The second annual exhibition of the Pittsburg Exposition society opened in the exposition buildings in this city yesterday evening. The exhibits are numerous and unusually attractive.

"It goes right to the spot," said an old gentleman, who found great benefit in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He was right. Derangements of the stomach, liver, and kidneys are more speedily remedied by this medicine than by any other. It reaches the trouble directly.

Our Very Best People

Cofirm our statement when we say that Dr. Acker's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for Throat and Lungs. In Whooping Cough and Croup, it is magic and relieves at once. We offer you a sample bottle free. Remember, this Remedy is sold on a positive guarentee. Sold by H. C. Hoberman & Co. and W. B. Foye.

BROKEN OUT!

How often do we see this on the faces of children and, alas, of people who otherwise are healthy? What causes it? Bad Blood. The thought is terrible; the trouble is worse. No ordinary help can remove it. It requires something unusual. Do not take cheap sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. You must have something that has proven its power in both Europe and America. General Wheatcroft Nelson, of London, says: "My experience in the English army, as well as in America, convinces me that nothing so thoroughly purifies the blood, or adds to the health, vigor and life, as Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir."

This grand Elixir is sold by druggists in all parts of America. It is a good, pure, honest medicine. Try it to-day.

THE HOME STEAM LAUNDRY

Opens for Business

MONDAY, SEPT'R 8.

To the People of Marion:

The Home Steam Laundry, a new solicitor for Marion patronage, will open for business on Monday, Sept. 8th. The undersigned have fitted up a first-class Steam Laundry in the Kerr House block, back of Farmers' Bank, supplied with the very best machinery, that will be operated with experienced hands. This enables us to solicit patronage with a guarantee that all work shall be of a quality unexcelled anywhere—we except no city—and all orders will be filled promptly.

Goods will be called for and delivered free of charge. Of course all orders brought to the Laundry will be appreciated, but we will cheerfully call for them if name and address is only left with us or sent in. We solicit at least a trial.

Yours Obediently,

CUSTER & FRIES.
